

KGS Interview Questions.

- What are closures? Why do we need them?
- What are promises? How did necessity arise for development of promises.
- What are the ways to make WebApp responsive?
- You have a One million users in your e-commerce project and when you call API and display user data in grid, it is loading all the one million user data and lacks in response. how do you handle it from front end side?

What if I have export data on click of button to get CSV of 100 records for example, How do you approach it from Frontend-side.? What if user clicks exit button while download was going?

- How do you handle in a situation where you have Two individual non dependent APIs to be loaded one after another? Why do we do that.

- ```
for(var i = 0; i < 3; i++) {

 setTimeout(() => console.log(i), 1000);

}
```

What is the output?

Follow-up questions:

- Why do we get different result in this method which is not the case with other methods?
- Can you Fix the issue and get the result? Do it.
- How do we avoid unnecessary re-rendering?
- What are the differences between react.memo and useMemo?
- What are the differences between Server-side rendering and Client-side rendering?
- Do you have experience in UI/UX? Tell us more about the experience using Adobe/Figma.